

World Cup Conversations

Here are some conversation starters to use around the World Cup. Some will help you have a conversation with God, some with each other. You might want to pull one out at half time, chat on the way to school, or suggest you all ask God a question. Use them however they work for you!

Tell God which teams you are supporting at the World Cup and why

Are winners special or are they just using the gifts God has given them?

How is the World Cup like heaven? How is it not like heaven?

Ask God: what's been your favourite moment at the World Cup so far?

Which team do you think God is supporting at the World Cup? Why?

Why did God give people bodies and minds that like sport?

If Jesus were on a football team, what position would he play? Why?

Are you a 'fan' of God? Why or why not?

Do you think Jesus would play football if he was on earth today?

What does God do when he sees something unfair happening?

Ask God: how can I become a better sportsperson?

Do you think God feels any big emotions like we do when we watch sport?

Tell God one thing you'd like to change about the World Cup and why

Ask God: what makes you want to celebrate?

Will we play football - or do any sport - in heaven?

Is God as exciting as the World Cup? Why or why not?

Do you think you can train to be a Christian like you can train to be a footballer?

Why does God make us with different strengths and skills?

When has God helped you in a game or a match?
